

Hong Kong Products at the Indian International Consumer Electronics, Home Appliances and Household Products Fair

Hong Kong manufacturers were able to showcase their stylish and high quality products at the Indian International Consumer Electronics, Home Appliances and Household Products Fair which took place during 13–15 May 2010 at the Bombay Exhibition Centre, Mumbai. Around 1,050 visitors had the opportunity to get a glance at the trendy Hong Kong products featured at the promotional booth of Hong Kong Trade Development Council (HKTDC). Visitors who came to the HKTDC booth were impressed and looked forward to visiting the Lifestyle Expo in Mumbai, a solo trade fair organised by HKTDC and the Department of Foreign Trade and Economic Cooperation of Guangdong Province (GDDOFTEC), which will be held 28–30 October 2010 at the Grand Hyatt Mumbai, Exhibition Ground.

The Lifestyle Expo in Mumbai will feature near 180 companies from Hong Kong and Guangdong Province of China and will include product categories such as consumer electronics, gifts and premium, fashion & fashion accessories, sports goods, houseware products, watches and clocks, and many more.
